PRESS RELEASE

Taxpayer Advocate Laura Avila announces the Endorsement of Ridgecrest Area Association of REALTORS

The Ridgecrest Area Association of REALTORS (RAAR) has endorsed Laura Avila to be the next Kern County Assessor-Recorder. This endorsement adds another great group of community supporters that are supporting Laura Avila to be Kern County's next Assessor-Recorder.

Ridgecrest Area Association of REALTORS said, "The Ridgecrest Area Association of REALTORS is proud to announce our endorsement of Laura Avila for Kern County Assessor-Recorder. Laura has over 15 years' experience with the Assessor's office. She understands the needs of our REALTORS and how important it is to have accurate and timely data. 'Our Association is proud to support Laura. She is a hard worker and dedicated to serve Kern County' said Association President James Mower."

Laura Avila commented, "I am so honored to have the support of the Ridgecrest Area Association of REALTORS. They are the hard-working individuals that help property owners in the Ridgecrest and Kern River Valley areas of Kern realize the dream of home ownership and/or property investment in our great county. Thank you for the endorsement."

The Ridgecrest Area Association of REALTORS joins other supporters like Kern County Sheriff Donny Youngblood, Supervisor Mike Maggard, Dick Taylor, Kern County Assessor-Recorder Jon Lifquist and previous Assessor-Recorder Jim Fitch in their support of Laura Avila for Assessor-Recorder.
